Village Establishes Park Board

One Liner

Why are the neighbors' children always so faithful at practicing their violin and tuba lessons?

Lake Villa Hikes Fees

Increased water and sewer connection fees have been given the okay by the Lake Villa village board. In a unanimous vote, the trustees ended 18 months of deliberation with a new ordinance at their June 11 meeting.

Certain Grand Ave. structures, those existing on the line that participated in the special assessment, will be exempt for the increases.

TRUSTEE CHUCK Madsen reported the village's sewer plan is to be completed in from two weeks to a month. Although he and his water and sewer committee had decided to shut off the line under Rt. 21 except for emergencies, Mayor Ted Nielsen and others convinced him to "leave it on as long as it is functioning."

Also discussed was the rezoning petition of Edward Kidera and Dorothy Eiserman for their Deep Lake Hermitage development, 144 apartment units, on Rt. 83, north of the Lakeview Terrace apartments. Their request to change R-2 (residential) property to R-5 (planned residential development) now rests with the plan commission for a written recommendation.

Santino Prepares To Build, But in County or Village?

By JERRY PFARR

Thomas F. Santino is getting ready to build his housing development at Antioch Country Club.

The last obstacle was cleared three weeks ago when the Illinois Supreme Court denied a petition by the Lake County state's attorney's office to reconsider an Appellate Court decision in favor of Santino.

"So that ends the lawsuit,"

Santino said. "Now I'm in the process of starting the development. The engineer, architect and surveyors have been hired."

NEWS ANALYSIS

He said the general contractor will be a Chicago firm and that groundbreaking will be the next step.

Santino hopes to have model units on display by late fall or early spring.

SANTINO'S PLANS call for a very attractive development. Cluster housing, townhouses and apartments would be built along Route 59 and along Grass Lake Rd. Dwellings also would be nestled among the trees and between the rolling fairways of an already beautiful golf course.

Antioch has a new five-member park board with the passage (5-0, one absent) of an ordinance at Monday's village board meeting.

Formed from the seven-member citizen's park committee, it has responsibility for purchase, maintenance and use of buildings, equipment and property.

Village attorney Andrew Lynch said the board is "short of a park district, but more than just a committee" and will work at the approval of the village board. He added that the new board has the power to levy taxes (following the proper referendum procedure).

Lynch explained that, by law, the park board had to be either three or five members, eventually each with five-year terms. Mayor Robert Wilton appointed Cliff Houghton as chairman (re-appointment due in one year) and Euncie Mueller, secretary (three years). Other members are Bruce Bartosz (two years), Gail Fields (four years) and Marsha Starcevic (five years).

A SECOND ordinance was passed concerning use of the parks, including hours, conduct, vehicles and permits. Authority in these matters is given to the park board, with fines ranging from $5 to $500. Trustee William Seemann, chairman of the civic activities committee, reported that a Little League representative will serve in an advisory capacity.

The public works and buildings committee, chaired by trustee Mike Haley, met with

How Housing Developments Affect Schools

By BETSY ROSEN

When a housing development of major proportion is under consideration, the school districts of the area are naturally concerned. The case of the CABL corporation and school districts 34 and 117 is no exception.

The financial impact of rapid increases in population is felt by many services and facilities. To meet the demands of an enlarged enrollment the schools have negotiated with both CABL and Americana Realty in Lindenhurst.

WHY WORK for agreement between schools and developer? The main reason cited by superintendents of both districts, Henry Meyer of the grade schools and Warren Polley of the high school, is the tax lag. Although services such as education begin immediately the provider of such services, the school, does not receive funds from property taxes for 18 to 30 months. Therefore, a settlement acceptable to both parties is sought.

Antioch school districts had such concerns in mind when they negotiated with the Lindenhurst development. Though recent village board action changes the Americana Heights plan, the contract with the Antioch schools "will follow through regardless of what they build," says Meyer.

THE MONETARY agreement talks used the studies made over the past 10 or 12 years by the Illinois School Consulting Service and the

Oven Fire

An Oakwood Knolls kitchen was the scene of much smoke early Sunday evening when an oven caught fire. Apparently the homemaker had forgotten to remove a grease pan in her automatic self-cleaning appliance.

Fire Chief Tod Maplethorpe said the department responded to the call at approximately 5 p.m. No injuries or damage to property were reported.

THE STUDENTS OF John Wheeler's Upper Grade School science class display their map of the school creek. The map was made so the students could see and measure the changes of the creek in coming years. They felt that since the creek is important to the school nature center, they should have a record of its changes. Using the information on the map, the students presented an appeal to the Village Board, asking the Antioch officials to consider the possible effects on the creek if any changes are made upstream of the school's nature center.

Village Ponders Santino Annexation

there would be 887 dwelling units that could add about 2,500 residents to the area. The development would include a small shopping center (a "convenience center"), a marina, playgrounds and tennis courts.

But there is still opposition and several questions remain unanswered.

Most of the opposition seems to come from the nearby Grass Lake and Emmons grade school districts. Members of both school boards have said they favor a housing development of single family units, the kind already existing in the area.

Richard Ruck, president of the Emmons school board, has been quoted as saying that a large influx of students from the development "would kill us." It would be impossible for the two schools to maintain the same quality of education, board members say.

SANTINO SAID he made a previous offer to the schools, it was rejected, and he has had to spend that money "foolishly" in court.

The Appellate Court said he is not required to pay money to a school district as a condition of zoning.

Santino added that his project is geared to an adult community and wouldn't generate enough pupils to merit a school on the site of the development.

He would, however, like to be annexed by the village of Antioch and has offered land on which the village could construct a safety building.

Mayor Robert C. Wilton of Antioch has appointed a six-member annexation committee to study the possibility. It includes three village trustees, three members of the planning commission, plus Wilton and Plan Commission Chairman Ken Wierschem.

They are faced with some problems.

For example, if Antioch annexed the Santino property it would have to provide police and fire protection "out there" - a mile and a half from the village - and maintain the streets.

A corridor from the village to the country club also would have to be annexed, and what if those property owners asked for zoning that would permit more apartment buildings along Rt. 59 on the way to Grass Lake Rd.?

And what about the schools? Some Antioch officials apparently would like to see Santino work something out with them.

MAYOR WILTON asked the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry to poll its members regarding the annexation. A total of 104 questionnaires were sent out and 53 came back. Thirty-seven Chamber members favored the annexation, 14 opposed it and two had no response.

Antioch businessmen naturally are tempted to savor the idea of the potential new customers that such a development could bring.

But one of the 14 who answered "no" on his questionnaire had this comment:

"It is my opinion that the safer method of growth for our community is gradual expansion rather than trying to digest big bunches at a time. We must be ever careful that the balance of power remains with the nucleus and is not transferred to the perimeter. A case in point is the apparent awkward situation at Fox Lake."

Waste Management, Inc. (CCD) to air questions and complaints. The landfill company stated that fencing would be completed by July 1, dusting of the site would be done and a new entrance started July 1 to be completed within 30 days.

SEEMANN REPORTED the company also agrees to store leachate for processing in the village, rather than letting it flow unchecked.

The 1975 Sidewalk Replacement project contract was awarded to Laursen and Blackman following recommendation by the village engineer and the public works committee. Work is expected to begin immediately.

At the superintendent of public works' recommendation, the board voted to raise the fee for parking lot sweeping to $30 an hour from $20 an hour.

Upcoming meetings scheduled are plan commission, 7:30 p.m., June 19; zoning board, 7:30 p.m., June 26; finance, planning and zoning, nuisance control, and civic activities, June 23; and village board, July 7.

Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission (NIPC).

On the basis of housing "mix" (type and amount), NIPC calculates the number of children each type of unit could house. According to the present agreement with Americana, the developer would pay the schools jointly $240 per anticipated child.

This amount is payable when the village occupancy permit is granted. That is, paid upon occupancy for the first time.

Flexibility of amount paid is dependent upon two things:

1. Birth rate changes affecting the "units of mix."

2. Cost of living factors affecting the $240 (adjusted each January according to percentage changes for the Chicago area).

MEYER SAYS the $240 figure is the product of negotiations and estimated costs per student, but is "relatively arbitrary." Both he and Polley believe that though the agreement is not a solution, it is at least a help.

The schools are still in hopes for the same agreement with CABL as that reached with Americana.

Meyer hopes also for a precedent to be set, requiring the same formula agreement of any developer wanting to build within village boundaries. In that way, all would be treated equally.

The possibility of a land donation is still alive, though a stand-off was met on this point in past negotiations. The land CABL was willing to give, approximately 10 acres in the southwest corner of the property, the schools consider too low and with no access. This discrepancy over buildability resulted finally in verbal agreement - monetary in nature.

BARRY GOLDWATERSome Students Think Lincoln Was a Racist

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

American students today seem to be making their own history; at least they are drawing their own conclusions from the material given to them in school.

This development in education may not seem too dramatic until the middle-aged American sits down and recalls how he formed his conclusions about the character of George Washington and the Revolutionary War and other important developments in our past.

He will find that history was outlined for him by a teacher using a textbook which told all of the nicer and more credible developments in American history.

RECENTLY, a survey of history classrooms' opinions by The Washington Post found that students today are drawing their own conclusions based on information supplied them.

For example, in Room D-26 at P.C. William High School in Alexandria, Va., the students do not lack for opinion. About one-half of the advanced class in American Civilization believes "Lincoln was a racist."

A few of the 11th graders consider Thomas Jefferson a hypocrite.

near Syracuse, N.Y., the pupils in one advanced history class saw our forefathers as "European dropouts who came over here and just loved to push the Indians around. That made them look superior."

The class split sharply on whether F.D.R. was a hero or a villain.

THE INTERESTING aspect is the students are deciding for themselves. The emerging generation seems to be learning a new way of describing the American epoch. In many it has instilled a habit of critical analysis about how Americans behaved rather than some popular version of their performance.

Some teachers in New York state schools have begun to call this the "new history" and

The Town Crier

We still think the village parking lots should be remarked. The spaces aren't wide enough for the cars.

But if that's the only thing we can find to complain about, it must be a pretty good town.

LAST WEDNESDAY'S outing of the Antioch Lions Club was one of the most "fun" golf tournaments we've ever played in.

The Antioch Country Club course was a pleasure to play, and the greens were beautiful. The only thing that made scoring difficult was that Bill Seemann kept running over golf balls with his cart.

Jack Fields had the day's best score, a 75. We didn't know Jack was that good, but he assured us that he is.

(Actually, he was very modest about it. He said he was lucky.)

Boy, a 75. That's pretty good, because Jack isn't a kid anymore, you know.

THE SECOND BEST score was a 78 by Jack Smith, former business manager at the high school. He usually shoots about 90 - but we have it on the best authority that he didn't cheat.

The best shot we saw all day (except those being sold by Bill Barr for $1 apiece) was hit by Ray Thelen. He whacked a 4-wood about 250 yards to the 16th green and birdied that par-5 hole. Jack Nicklaus would like to hit a shot like that in this week's U.S. Open in Chicago.

The steaks at the post-tournament banquet were great, too. The Lions Club and Antioch Country Club sure know how to stage a party. And some of those Lions sure know how to hit a guy in the forehead with a dinner roll from four tables away.

WORST JOKE we heard at the party was about the golfer who killed his nagging wife:

"What club did you use?" asked a friend.

"A 7-iron."

"Well, that was the right club. How many strokes did you take?"

"Two."

"What happened on the first one?"

"I looked up."

Thompson for Governor?

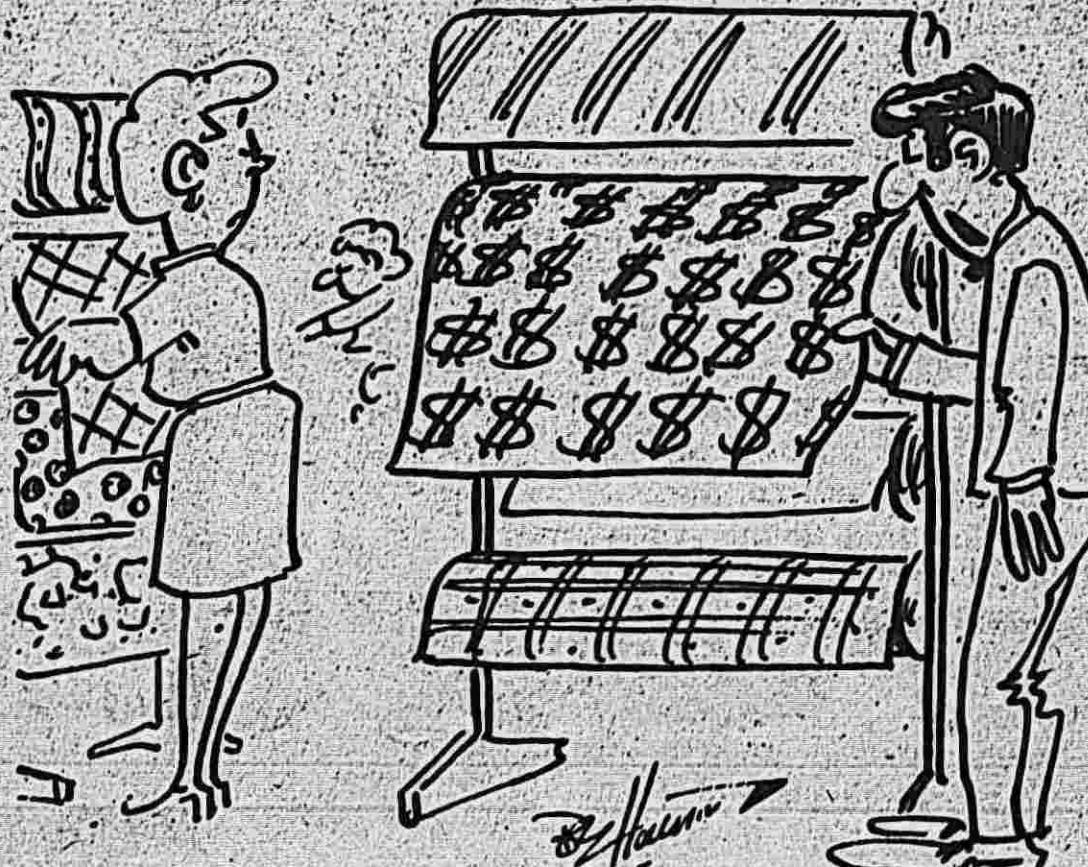

With the Illinois primary less than a year away, speculation is growing regarding the Republican nominee for governor. And, one of the most prominent Republicans in the state, U.S. Attorney James Thompson, is getting support without saying he's a candidate.

"Why wait for a statement?" said Forrest Hare, chairman of the Northern Illinois Thompson for Governor Committee. "The Republicans have to put their best people up front and Jim Thompson is our best."

Hare's group is one of several trying to raise support for Thompson to run for governor. As a federal appointee, Thompson cannot announce his candidacy unless he resigns his present position as U.S. Attorney.

But Hare says, "The only thing that can stop this draft-Thompson campaign will be if Jim doesn't sign the statements of candidacy at filing time."

Republicans are concerned that, by hesitating, they may be left with a weak candidate in 1976. Attorney General William Scott has announced he will not run. Yet, some Republicans think he might.

After July 3 a drawing will be held and the winner will receive 50 gift certificates worth $10 each, or a total of $500. Second prize will be $100 worth of certificates and third prize will be $50.

The gift certificates can be spent in any of the participating stores.

claim it grew out of the same education theories that produced the "new math." In other words they claim it grew out of a need to teach basic concepts rather than just facts.

Needless to say many of the basic concepts clash with the accepted version.

As a result some secondary school students are saying that such minor myths as the tale about George Washington and the cherry tree and Davy Crockett's feats are nothing but fiction.

Pedestals have been jerked from under the Jeffersons, the Jacksons and the Lincolns by students who usually retain a high regard for these men as mortal leaders and politicians. More students are examining how the Indians were treated, the plight of the black people and the values of capitalism versus socialism. Also many more students are studying whether the United States morally should have dropped the first atomic bomb.

MANY PEOPLE, especially our liberal friends, like to make much of these developments in the classrooms of today - just as they did in the classrooms of yesterday.

I personally like what I see and hail the positive proof that our new generation is studying the past to make sure it avoids mistakes made then when it confronts the problems of the future.

reimbursement grant has been sent via the state Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to the USEPA. Lake Villa qualifies for approximately $60,000 for a 1987 upgrading of its sewer treatment plant.

MAYOR NIELSEN commended the Lake Villa Volunteer Fire Dept. on its showing in the recent county convention in Antioch. The force set a county record in the five-man hook-up, placed second in the three-man hydrant hook-up and third in both water fights and bucket brigade.

Use of Lehmann Park and a special event liquor license were granted to the fire department for Lake Villa Days, Aug. 7 through 10.

THE VILLAGE hopes to have a lifeguard on duty at the park by July 1. The trustees gave approval to swimming instruction by Barb Sander of Antioch, who will negotiate details with the buildings and grounds committee.

Scientific Aquatic Weed Control will again work on the north shore of Cedar Lake, but with a $15 increase over last year's charge of $95.

The resignation of Russell

Goodnow, superintendent of sewer and water works, was accepted. Though the resignation is effective July 1, he offered his help to the village, saying he wishes he were 10 years younger. Nielsen and the trustees thanked him for his service and concern for the village, adding that they too wished he could continue his work for Lake Villa.

Spanish-American War Vet Celebrates 96th Birthday

FRED SMITH

By BETSY ROSSEN

Fred Smith's his name, but he has been known to Antioch kids as "Gramps" for years. He celebrated his 96th birthday Sunday and it was my privilege to chat with him and his daughter, Lillian Gaa.

Fred was born in 1879 in Chicago at Lake St. and Clarkson Ct., one of seven children. He has lived in the Chicago area all his life, except for four exciting years in the U.S. Navy.

He now lives with Mrs. Gaa and her son Ronald in their rural Antioch home. He's also seen two grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren grow from his marriage to Edna Walker in September of 1905.

Among his most treasured possessions are his Navy papers. He enlisted in 1899, serving for four years during the Spanish-American War. A member of the VFW, he is one of only a few remaining Illinois veterans of that war.

In the early 1900's sailors were paid $30 a month. They had to buy most of their food as well, though they game $5 a month to a caterer aboard ship. Fred served on some of the first coal-fired ships and one of Farragut's old flagships. He crossed the equator three times and to prove it has a diploma from "King Neptune's Court" dated 1900.

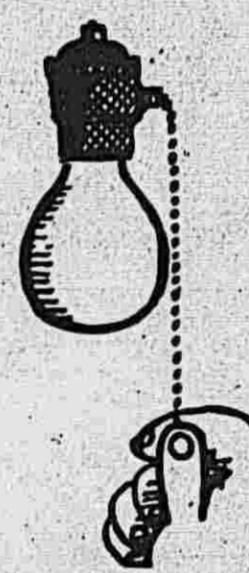

Fred, Edna and daughter Lillian lived in River Forest and Maywood for 18 years while he did custom farming for other farmers. He retired from farming in 1928 and came to Antioch the next year. He worked with Gaa Oil Co. here in town, and returned after two years' work at a fox farm in southern Wisconsin.

Perhaps the biggest change he has seen is in transportation. He's experienced everything from horse-drawn carts to 747s, with an assortment including cable and street cars, ships and high-wheeled Sears automobiles (with steering rod) in the meantime.

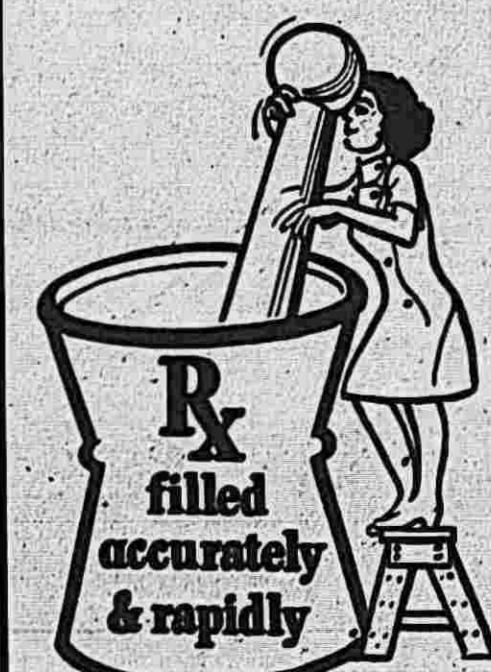

Though the years have impaired his hearing and vision, Fred Smith remains strong in his love for people and convictions about life. And I saw a lot of pride as we talked and vitality with a wave of his cane as I left.

Sure was a stormy weekend - however the double rainbow was beautiful last Friday evening after the scary brown sky and high winds. Bishop McManus was in Antioch Sunday to preside at the 2 p.m. Mass celebrating the 75th

An open house followed in the Social Center. It was good to see all the former nuns and priests renewing old acquaintances.

The Antioch Moose Lodge is a big winner in the Illinois State Lottery - seems they sold the winning ticket to a Kenosha man who won $300,000. So the lodge received a check for $3,000.

The Antioch Lions Club golf outing at the Antioch Country Club turned out to be another of those rollicking good times they always have. Lots of fun and hi-jinks. Plans are in the making for their bus trip to Rainbow Springs resort in Mukwonago in August - better get those golf shots and clubs polished up, guys!

Sandi Steward and Robin Hughes (brown as berries) are back at work after a two-week trip to Florida to visit Sandi's sister, Disney World and, of course, the beaches.

Jim McLellan, a senior at Antioch High School, leaves Friday to study in Barcelona, Spain, with Dr. Jorge Prats under the Knox College summer program. Jim will be there for six weeks, living with a Spanish family, and will earn two college credits for his work. What a super way to spend the year, for this will be the first year in 25 that there will not be a Zeien at St. Peter's school!

Students of the Kim Kalla Dance Studio had their recital last Saturday, much to the delight of all the parents. The little bumble-bees, Jack and Jill and the Fairy Godmother, and her magic wand were something else! There's nothing cuter than little ones all dressed in costumes trying their best not to be scared and to remember what to do.

A real nice evening Kim! Condolences to Marilyn Sternbenz on the death of her aunt, Margaret Fleming.

Birthday greetings to Lois Dowell on the 18th, to Curly Wertz on the 19th, to Cindy Carney on the 21st, to Joan Apostal and Jennifer Haley on the 23rd, and to Ann Haley and Eric Stroner on the 25th.

Anniversary congrats to Helen and Bernie DeVries on the 21st and to Wanda and Russ Barthel on the 23rd.

Do you really believe that "black eye" came from a tennis ball? Hmmm ... Polly, we hope so!

Have a super day!

New Johnny Cash Film To Be Shown

The story is old, but the perspective is up-dated and brought into sharp focus by the film THE GOSPEL ROAD to be shown Sunday at The Antioch Evangelical Free Church, Tiffany Road and Highview Drive. The showing will begin at 7 p.m.

THE GOSPEL ROAD was conceived and produced by Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash, whose desire was to tell the story of Jesus Christ in a realistic and meaningful way.

The film is a unique blend of scripture-based narrative, specially written songs, and a series of in-depth character portrayals, with Isreal itself as the mixing bowl.

You are there, walking beside the Jordan and the Sea of Galilee; you are there, seeing Him in many human situations that establish a practical and personal rapport with every viewer.

You are there, being introduced to the disciples, and gaining insights into their varied personalities. You are there, experiencing the highly charged emotional impact of the trial before Pilate, and becoming so personally involved that you feel sympathetic pain when Robert Elfstrom, in an outstanding portrayal of Christ, suffers the physical attack that precedes the Crucifixion.

Adding to the effectiveness of THE GOSPEL ROAD in its endeavor to convey reality for this day are: the fascinating treatment of the Crucifixion, making this tragedy take on meaning for men of all ages.

BOWLERS WIN $800 -- A bowling team sponsored by Al's Citgo, brought home smiles and a hard-fought seventh place finish Sunday in the third annual Metropolitan Chicago Bowling Proprietors tournament in Elk Grove Village. The team won $800 in a field of 20 teams that qualified among 3,000 eligible for the tournament.

OAKWOOD KNOLLS NEWS

By JUDY PHILLIPS.

LORETTA SCHIFFMANN was installed as president of St. Peter's Altar and Rosary Society in a ceremony at St. Peter's Church Tuesday evening, June 10.

Father Johnson officiated and issued the oath of office. Following the installation of officers the members enjoyed a delicious dinner and festivities at the Lake Shore Inn.

Joining in all the fun were, from Oakwood Knolls, Loretta Schiffmann, Pearl Roach, Dorothy Purfeerst, Regie Szymanski, Fran Lombardo, Terry Hanson, Tenza Jandula, Rose Gardula, Jane Kish, Ella Cerny, Lottie Vejvodá, Estelle Gatch and Judy Phillips.

The lessons will be held from July 28 through Aug. 8 at the beach. The fee for the swimming lessons is $3.50 per child, payable at registration. A parent must accompany the child to registration.

Barb Sander will be the swimming instructor, ably assisted by Terry Renz. Lessons are offered to all Oakwood Knolls children from toddlers on up. There is a possibility of an adult evening swim class if enough people are interested.

Please call Barb Johnson 395-3955 or Chris Kellogg 395-3262 for more information.

ALTHOUGH THERE have been very few hot days so far this summer, the beach and park area is being used. All Oakwood Knolls residents are asked to remember the beach and park rules: Beach tags must be worn at all times; the beach opens at 8:30 a.m. and closes at 10:30 p.m.; no food, drinks or fires; no mini-bikes, motorcycles or go-carts; parents should accompany a child or non-swimmer under 7 years old to the beach.

The monthly Oakwood Knolls Property Owners Association meeting will be Wednesday, June 25, at 8 p.m. at the State Bank of Antioch. Sue Sedivec, Antioch Community Relations officer, will present a program on alcohol and drug abuse.

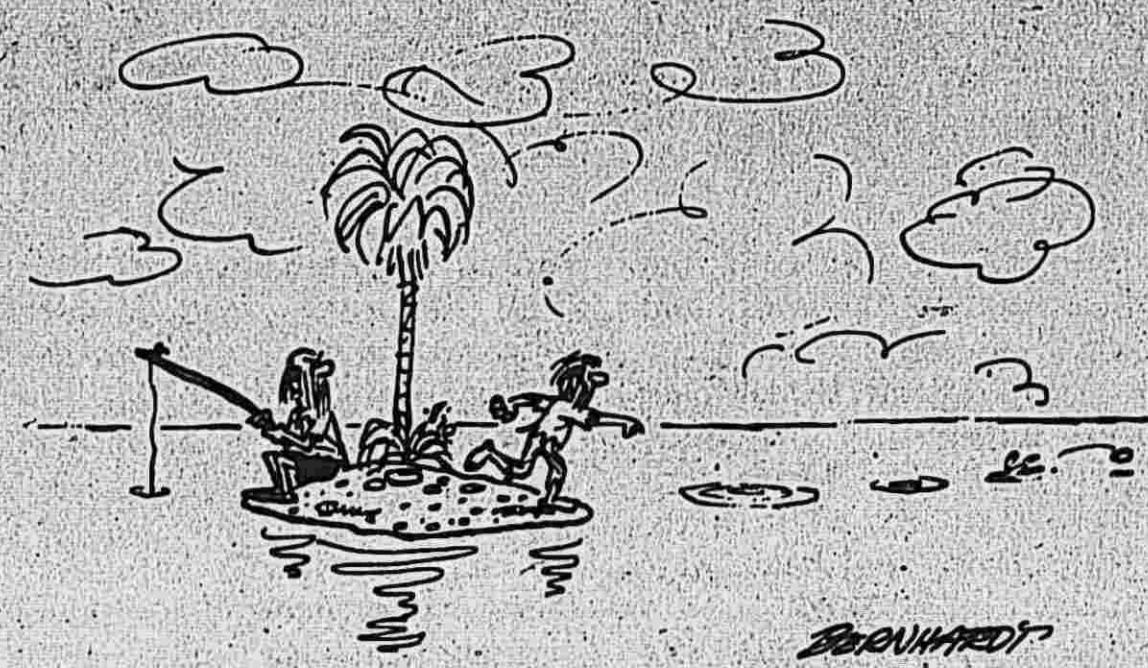

Association membership dues are due by July 1. If you haven't already paid your 1975 dues, please send your $10 check to Oakwood Knolls Property Owners Association, P.O. Box 159, Antioch, Ill. 60002.

What to look for when you're looking for an air conditioner.

Before you choose an air conditioner, ask the dealer for its energy efficiency ratio. This number tells you the efficiency of a unit. An air conditioner with an EER number of 8 or above will be thrifty for you electrically.

The EER number is computed by dividing the BTUs by the watts. A 12,000-BTU unit that uses 1500 watts will rate an 8. If the EER doesn't appear on the tag or metal nameplate, use this simple formula yourself. It's a worthwhile exercise that can pay off in electric dollar savings over the long run.

Don't buy too much capacity. Surprisingly, an air conditioner that's too big usually won't keep you as comfortable as a smaller unit.

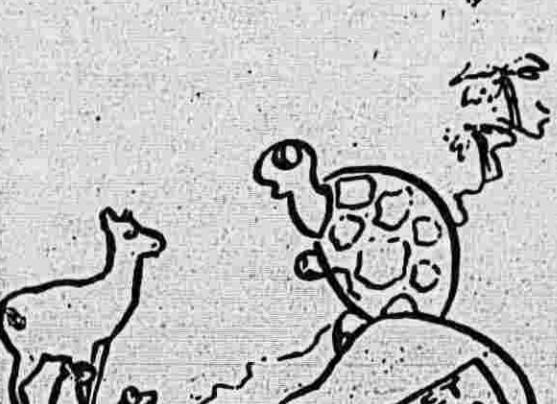

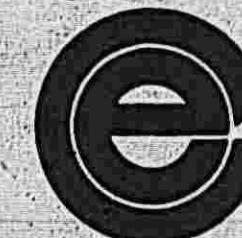

So measure the space to be cooled before you go to the dealer. Also note any doors that might let cool air escape, or windows that might let direct sunlight in. The dealer will have charts to translate your notes into the right air conditioner selection.

Some tips on cutting cooling costs. Keep the warm air out and the cool air in with proper insulation and weather stripping where you need it. Block out the sun by drawing drapes. And locate the air conditioner on the shady side of your house, making sure to seal any leaks in the window after you put it in.

It makes a lot of sense to buy an air conditioner that starts efficient and stays efficient. Saving energy always makes sense. And when summer's over, you'll find the extra care was worth it—in dollars and cents.

Allendale's Art Show Opens

The second semi-annual Allendale School Art Show will be inaugurated by Mayor Robert Wilton at the State Bank of Antioch on Thursday at 9:30 a.m.

The entire collection of 126 exhibits created by the boys of Allendale School's recreational program will be on display at the bank on Thursday, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Saturday, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The three-day exhibit is the result of workshop experience in arts and crafts of boys ranging from 11 to 16 years of age, under the guidance of Mr. Terry Larson and his assistant, Mrs. A. Burkle, a volunteer from the Retired Senior Volunteers program and chairman of the lapidary section of Lake County Gem and Mineral Society.

Mr. Kanwarjit Singh, recreational director at Allendale School, sees the importance of this exhibit in building community awareness of the boys' positive abilities and creative self-expression through an art media. Such exposures for boys "in trouble are very therapeutic, reinforcing and far-reaching in terms of their social recognition and acceptance by society," he said.

The variety of media used by the boys for this show include wood sculpture, decoupage, block prints, tables, bookends, string art, tin repose, hooked rug, jewelry, wireform, rock forms and watercolors, which would be put to Christy auction with the proceeds to go toward the betterment of the Allendale School recreational program to reinforce the boys' efforts.

BOYS AT ALLENDALE SCHOOL demonstrate woodworking and painting in the "start to finish" process of their arts and crafts program that has produced 126 exhibits for the second semi-annual Art Show at the State Bank of Antioch Thursday through Saturday. Mr. Joel Flaschner, (striped shirt) gives his approval to teamwork on a wood sculpture as hand tools are put to use in the woodworking shop. The exhibits for the three-day show represent the creativity and self-expression of boys from 11 to 16 years of age. Mayor Robert Wilton will inaugurate the Art Show on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in the State Bank lobby.

COMMENT

The fastest races in Lake County high school track and field competition this spring were run by Antioch's Mike Jones.

Jones led the county's final honor roll of the season with 9.9 seconds in the 100 yard dash and 22.4 for the 220.

Antioch's 880 yard relay team, composed of Jones, Ron Gramer, Dave Moore and Karl Blumenschein, was second in the final honor roll.

Their fastest time of 1 minute 32.6 seconds was only two-tenths of a second behind the county's best clocking, posted by Libertyville.

ANTIOCH HIGH'S baseball team has some fine statistics to show for its 1975 season.

Mike Perrone, the school's star basketball player, wound up the baseball season with a .383 batting average. He was followed by Ron Sheedlo, who hit .327; Mitch Witt with .297 and Tom McAvoy with .280.

McAvoy and Witt led the team in runs-batted-in with six apiece.

Jerry Popp had the best pitching record, with two wins and two losses, and a 2.3 earned run average. Ron Jackson had a good earned run average, too, posting 2.9.

THE KENOSHA Match Game championship is the biggest bowling event held in that city each year. And four Kenosha county keglers who do their bowling in Antioch were tremendous stars in that tournament this year.

The event was held at the Surf Bowl in Kenosha and the women's champion was Gwen Neau, who averaged 187. She had held a 172 average in the Antioch Classic league.

Also among the top eight were Fay Veltum and Lois Hartman. The three women are from the Salem-Trevor area, but do most of their bowling in Antioch.

In the men's championship Willis Hanke, a 54-year-old Silver Lake bowler who also competes in Antioch, led Kenosha's finest by winning his first eight games with a 215 average. After the tournament's 16 games, he wound up in fourth place.

Eddie Prasil, the Kenosha bowler who won the tournament, will be moving out to this area. He is buying the Twin Lakes bowling alley and ballroom from Paul Zima.

Racing Resumes Saturday at Wilmot

Last weekend proved a dismal one for race fans and drivers alike as rain halted the Saturday night show and prevented the special Sunday night program at the fairgrounds speedway at Wilmot on the Illinois-Wisconsin line, west of Antioch.

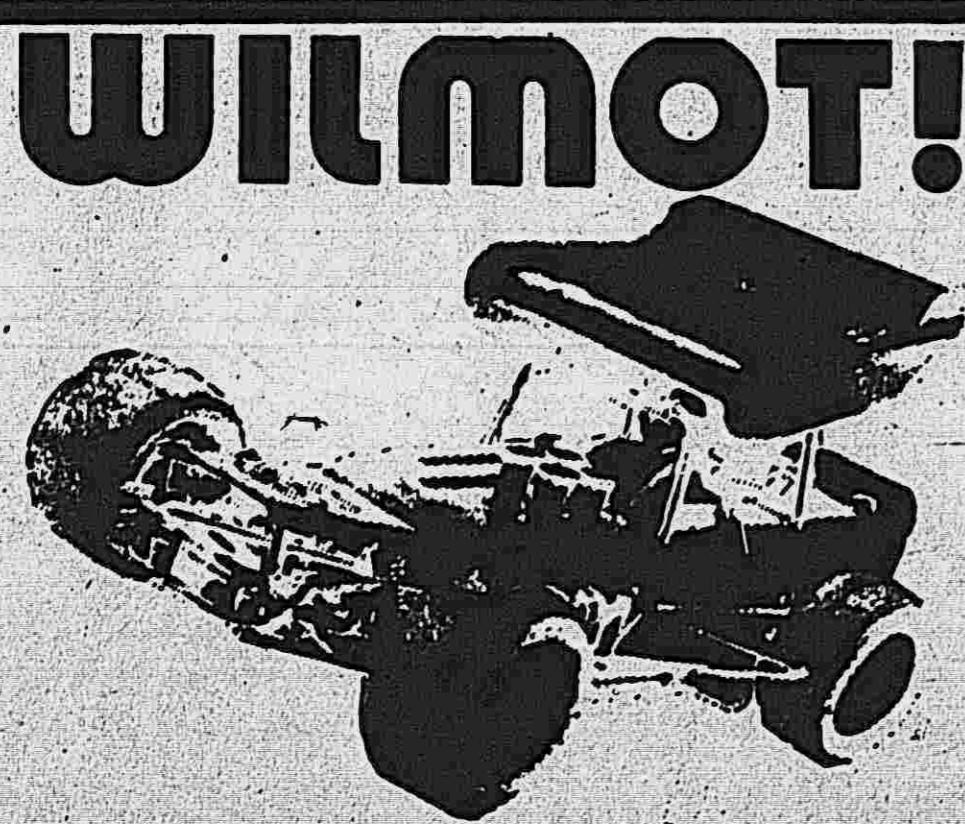

On Saturday night, qualifying for super modified cars had just been completed when the rains came, cancelling the efforts of veteran sprint car driver Dick St. John, who piloted the No. 1 car of track champion Ron Marish to the fastest qualifying lap of the evening.

Marish, suffering from stomach troubles, was back at the Mayo Clinic for a third operation in recent months and is not expected to be racing again until early August.

Instead of announcing rain dates for the two washed-out programs, the board of the IRA (Interstate Racing Assn.) has decided to plan two special shows for later in the summer

Altar, Rosary Society Installs New Officers

The ladies of St. Peter's Altar and Rosary Society held their installation of officers June 10. Incoming officers were installed in a special service in the church, followed by a banquet.

The new officers, installed by the Rev. Francis Johnson, are Loretta Schiffman, president; Eileen Zannini, vice-president; Margaret McKinney, secretary and Jean Benes, treasurer. The invocation was given by the Rev. Mr. Frank Colette, Permanent Deacon of St. Peter's Church. Mr. Colette, his wife Grace, Fr. Johnson and Fr. Leslie Hoppe were honored guests at the banquet at Osborne's Lakeshore Inn.

Gifts were presented by Dorothy Purfeirst to the outgoing officers. Receiving charm bracelets were President Evelyn Freund; vice-president Pearl Roche; secretary Loretta Schiffman; and treasurer Jean Benes.

Evelyn Freund spoke fondly and humorously of the memories of her two years as president. Her comedic style of delivery had all those present laughing until their sides ached.

Loretta Schiffman, in her inaugural speech, asked the members for their continued support in the spirit of Christian charity. She also asked the ladies to consider a change in meeting nights from Tuesday to Thursday, and a change in the name of the group to The Ladies of St. Peter's Church.

The after-dinner entertainment was given by the "Sunbonnet Susie Trio" of Shirley (Gutowski), Evelyn (Freund), and Helen (Zeien), direct from a long engagement at the Lincolnshire Marriot, singing many of our old favorites.

On July 9, at 7:30 p.m., members will gather at Benet

Lake for the Living Rosary. On July 19 there will be a rummage sale in the basement of the church. Please contact Maxine Meyer to volunteer your services.

Also, please contact Eileen McGuire to volunteer your services and dishes for the annual Salad Bar Luncheon, to be held on Saturday, Aug. 15.

The Christmas Bazaar will be held in December. Ann Kozel will serve as chairman.

ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

All of you people who want to take a vacation in Mexico and have a special low air fare can do it now.

The CAB has approved a new individual tour fare to Mexico from Chicago, going into Mexico City and Acapulco.

Before, one had to go on certain days and with a group; now you can go any day and not worry about enough people for your tour.

The only restrictions you have are as follows: Minimum stay of 5 days and the maximum stay of 21 days; minimum ground arrangements are $60 for 5 days plus $7 per each additional day.

The blackout periods in which one cannot take advantage of this saving is Dec. 15 through Dec. 28 from the U.S. to Mexico, and Dec. 29 through Jan. 10 from Mexico to U.S.

The regular coach fare to Acapulco from Chicago is $330 and this new special fare midweek is $240 and weekend is $262. The regular coach fare to Mexico City from Chicago is $290 and the special fare midweek is $208 and weekend $230.

It is for this reason I keep pressing the point of seeing your local travel agent for he can save you a lot of money on your travels. This is just one good example. Happy travels.

Route 173 Work Planned

Will the Real Millard Fillmore Please Stand Up?

So you think you know your presidents. The Antioch Township Library, as a Bicentennial project, is giving all history buffs the opportunity to test their powers of memory and recognition with a "name that president" contest.

The library has portraits of all chief executives (except Gerald Ford) in a series of prints entitled "Portraits of the Presidents" by Sam J. Patrick, a newspaper staff artist in Los Angeles.

Patrick's skill as an illustrator has enabled him to collaborate with many writers on internationally syndicated features. His work has appeared in more than 600 newspapers worldwide.

The library invites all to enter the contest, using the forms available at the circulation desk. Information on the presidents is displayed with the set.

Further information on closing date and prizes will be announced later.
